My dear Li

I beg to inform you that this place does not seem to agree with me at all. Since returning here I am beginning to feel pain in all my joints and all the old symptoms which had disappeared while at Bangalore are appearing one after another

I think living here long will not be Conducive to the improvement of my health. I beg therefore that you will be pleased to post me to another place, if an opportunity occurs. Considering all circumstances I think Hassan is the only place that will suit me and I shall thank you to send me there if convenient.

I trust you will excuse my troubling you with this letter which I am compelled to do in the interests of my health

Hoping you are well

Of the 3 attacks one was in the old cooly colony on the 16th the second was a brother of patel who had camped out. His brother attack was on the 19th His young man was probably visiting some sick relative & caught in the adjoining fields. The third case occurred on the 21st in a Komati who had camped out. He was probably visiting his infected Konga[illegible] I fully believe [illegible] which had been repre

The attitude of the villagers towards the plague camps is at present one of fear & apprehension & evil portends dishonor & we hope to remove this very soon. There are at present in the plague camp a respectable pleading Board & many difficulties are encountered in the way of thoroughly disinfecting whole villages in the form of want of sufficient coolies. The difficulties of removing the goods & chattels in front & the carting out of infected mud floors & removing the same might all be effected after sufficient numbers of disinfected coolies were forthcoming at least experimentally at Oregaum village.
